1. Call to Order and Meeting Overview:

- a. SDA 2 RAC Vice-Chair, Jennifer Kuhnle, made welcoming remarks orienting participants to the purpose of the Regional Advisory Council (RAC) meeting, called the meeting to order, provided an overview of the agenda items and meeting goals, and discussed meeting systems and procedures.

2. Introductions:

- a. Members introduced themselves by sharing their names and professional role.
- b. Members present included: Jennifer Kuhnle, Heather Brown, Madi McClosky, Jill Dahm, Allison Hillis, DiDi Buggs, and Natalie McIntire.

3. OECOSL Provider Recognition Program:

- a. To acknowledge the hard work and dedication of Indiana's early education teachers and out-of-school-time professionals, OECOSL released an opportunity for colleagues, families, and system staff to nominate those who showed exemplary skills and are making a difference in their community.
- b. In this initial round, over 150 nominations were received. As a result, we are pleased to recognize individuals throughout the state with the Outstanding Educator Award Certificate and funds to purchase additional materials for their classrooms.
 1. Congratulations to Cali Turner, Mya Matilla, Jessica Pierce, and Kayla Couch for your dedication to the children, families, and ECE community.

4. Reviewed Old Business:

- a. At the beginning of each Regional Advisory Council (RAC) meeting, the Council reviews action items and recommendations from the previous meeting and discusses progress.
- b. You can view past meeting minutes, recommendations, and their related action plan for each Service Delivery Area (SDA) on the SPARK website:
<http://indianaspark.com/regional-advisory-councils/>. In addition, you can find more information about these recommendations and updates on the SDA 2 website and in the meeting slide deck.

4. New Business

Regional Advisory Council
Meeting Summary February 7, 2023

- a. Building Wellness Initiative:
 - i. SPARK shared an overview of the Build, Learn, Grow Building Wellness Initiative. Building Wellness is an employee assistance program (EAP) provided by ComPsych Guidance Resources. It offers counseling, legal and financial consultation, work-life assistance, and crisis intervention services to all Indiana Early Education and Care professionals and their household family members.
 - ii. Learn more about Build, Learn, Grow Building Wellness at brighterfuturesindiana.org/build-learn-grow/building-wellness or wellness.buildlearngrow.org. Or call at 877.465.0899 (TTY: 800.697.0353)
 - iii. RAC members engaged in discussion questions
 - 1. Did you receive your Building Wellness marketing materials (poster, magnets, postcards)? Which were most helpful and why? How did you incorporate these materials into your program?
 - a. Show the educators what the program really has to offer. People aren't reading and don't know all the parts of the program.
 - b. Too much reading.
 - c. Nice to have a resource for a short time available when you aren't sure what to do, but here is a resource that they can use to help with their mental health.
 - d. Utilizing the program can help with staff retention.
 - e. The poster was the most helpful because it could be displayed in the staff lounge.
 - 2. What additional approaches should be considered for marketing Building Wellness to you and your staff?
 - a. Have information past the marketing materials. Share the depth and real things educators are experiencing. Ask the questions in the materials that we know are causing mental health challenges in the child care field: Are you stressed or burnt out?
 - b. Have a 30-minute training that goes over the resource with a questionnaire at the end of the video.
 - 3. What services through Building Wellness would be most helpful for you and your staff?
 - a. Budgeting and financial awareness to address inflation
- b. SPARK Professional Development Survey:
 - i. SPARK shared an overview of the recent professional development survey administered from August 23 thru September 9, 2022. The objective of the survey was to gather feedback to prioritize the content created to meet the most pressing needs, including educator preferences on modalities and availability of professional development and peer-to-peer networking opportunities. The primary audience for the survey was early education and care program leaders, program teachers and caregiving staff, and early care and education system partners.

- ii. RAC Members engaged in the following discussion questions:
 - 1. What would encourage you and your program staff to attend in-person training events?
 - a. Suggestions to encourage in-person attendance:
 - i. offer food
 - ii. keep drive times in mind and have locations throughout the SDA, not just one location within the SDA
 - 2. What would help educators feel more comfortable with having mental health and wellness support onsite in your program or classroom?
 - a. Reiterate confidentiality
 - b. Resources to share with parents also
 - 3. What mental health and wellness support or approaches have you used with yourself or with your staff that you found impactful?
 - a. Talking about mental health is key.
 - b. Ask colleagues how they are truly doing.
- c. Indiana Self-Assessment Tool (I-SAT) Relaunch
 - i. The I-SAT is a program-level assessment for Indiana's early childhood education and care programs. The I-SAT includes a quality continuum that includes specific behaviors, benchmarks, and, ultimately, a scope and sequence a program can utilize to improve quality. Based on early care and education program feedback, SPARK has worked to revise and relaunch the assessment to better support program leaders in pursuing continuous quality improvement.
 - ii. SPARK is rebranding the I-SAT to be more approachable and inviting.
 - 1. Should a name be considered that would not/could not be made as an acronym?
 - a. Something short and sweet so it won't deter engagement
 - b. Everything doesn't have to be an acronym. Coming up with something different would be great.
 - c. Would rather have a helpful name.
 - 2. Should "assessment" be included in the name of the tool? Discuss pros and cons.
 - a. tool is just as effective as assessment and less scary
- d. Early Care and Education Insights
 - i. Early care and education system partners share updates and what is happening.
 - 1. SPARK
 - a. SPARK shared their 2022 Annual Report Highlights.
